I, on behalf of myself, my company (if applies) partners, employees and volunteers, agree to abide by the rules and regulations and acknowledge that I have received, read and understood such rules and regulations, and further agree that my entry fee WILL NOT be refunded under any circumstances. Undersigned Exhibitor hereby releases, waives, discharges and covenants not to sue Appalachian Color in the Hills Festival, Committee Members, Village of Glouster, (here in after now as lessors) for any liability or damages it may incur by virtue of its use of the premises, including but not limited to claims of theft, property damage or personal injury incurred by me, my company, spouse or employees. This release of liability includes not only licensees, use of the premises, but also matters arising out of adjacent walkways and playground equipment of ingress and egress. THIS RELEASE EXPRESSELY IS INTENDED TO RELEASE THE LESSORS FROM ANY AND ALL LIABILITY. Exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless, LESSORS and or their agents and volunteers, from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, and expenses, (including but not limited to attorney's fees) arising out of exhibitor's use of the premises, including but not limited to claims of property damage, theft from premises, personal injury and death, regardless of whether or not the claim, damage, loss or expense is alleged to be caused in whole or in part by festival. Exhibitor agrees that this is a lease that only allows the exhibitor to use the space provided for the duration of the festival. It is further agreed that any litigation arising out of this agreement will be venue in Athens County, Ohio. Appalachian Color in the Hills Festival is an invitational event, and we reserve the right to reject any craft/ vendor applicants. Undersigned exhibitor agrees that it has read and understands all applicable rules, and has the opportunity to contact Appalachian Color in the Hills with any questions prior to contract execution.
